A five-digit serial number is assigned sequentially by the IC’s Contracting Office.

A two-digit number assigned to the contract to reflect the number of modifications. The number “00” indicates a new contract and may sequentially assign to “99.” If the type is coded as a 6, the modification number will change to a four-digit number. The first two-digit number will identify the Task Order written under a Master Agreement. The following two-digit number will reflect the number of modifications to the Task Order.
